Christian had no idea when he met Camille, that she was really his father s ex-wife, Nina, but after finding out that she d lied to him about who she was, in addition to finding out that she was cheating on him- ironically, with his father- he snapped. The betrayal from both Nina and Braxton was too much, causing him to shoot his father, nearly killing him. Fast forward a few years, and Christian has been granted early parole from prison. While on lockdown, he d shut himself off to everyone on the outside -except his mother- and vowed to never acknowledge or speak to his father, Braxton, again.after all, it was Braxton s lies and betrayal that set off the spiral of events that landed him in prison anyway. The years in prison have hardened Christian- turning him into a bitter and heartless man- and even though he now has his freedom back, he s hell bent on getting even with both Braxton and Nina. After overseeing a violent attack on his father, which left him once again, fighting for his life, he now focuses his attention on Nina. Hiding behind a fake online identity, he stalks her from a distance until he s ready to exact his, well thought out revenge plot on his former love. Revenge is sweet, indeed.but in this case, it can also be deadly.
