Excerpt from Club Men of Louisiana, in Caricature, 1917 Book contains kindly drawings, by the Associated Cartoonists of people with phosphorus plus. Kiln their heads is commonsense, and in their hearts the good-cheer that spells success. (eno man who is not adding to the wealth, the happiness, and the welfare of the world is herein included. Itthis is a little art - gallery of American Princes, and the American Prince is a man who is fifty-one per cent right, fifty-one per cent of the time; who does not make the same mistake twice in the same year, and who makes two grins grow where there was only a frown before. Gno Piker can break into this art-gallery. We pick our people, and thus do we produce with pen and ink a Hall of Fame. F the great men of the world are all dead, or else they live a long ways off. I The big men now are workers, businessmen, hustlers, the boys who are onto the job, and who realize that the only way they can help themselves...
