White: With Other Proceedings, at Lafayette, Indiana, on the Occasion of the Death of Gen. William H. Harrison, Late President of the United States I rise to discharge the inournful and affecting duty that has devolved to me by your request, overpowered with emoe tions, which, while they bear the stamp of nature to the sacredness of that duty, almost forbid its performance. A great man has fallen in Israel! The Chief Executive Magis trate of a powerful nation, bearing a trust with which he had been clothed by the suffrage of sixteen millions Of free peo ple, has been suddenly called from the highest responsibility on earth, to render for himself, his final account at the throne of the Eternal! The last enemy of Our race, respiting for a moment his warfare upon the humble and the poor, abashes the pride of man by entering with the stride of a conqueror into the seat of power, and by snatching from the sacred shrines Of human authority, the trophies Of human soveo reigny, and the dread symbols...
