Westland Limited, New Delhi, India. Softcover. Book Condition: New. Another year has begun, and there is tamasha in Bandargaon again. Puru Dholakrams free and daring heart struggles to answer the unflinching call of duty. Only he can revive his companys steadily plunging fortunes, as every new product his desperate CEO introduces proves to be a more miserable failure than the previous one. Meanwhile, his neighbour has lost a diamond necklace and Puru is requisitioned by his philosopher and guide, Professor Chaturbhuji editor of the near-bankrupt Bandargaon Observer newspaper to carry out a secret reconnaissance of the suspects activities and telephone conversations. Through these turbulent times, romance shimmers at the edges of Purus vision, but the aggressive salesman is unfortunately unequipped with the sensitive antennae to pick up signals. Amidst all this there is sudden hope the launch of a most revolutionary product, the BrainTrainer. What is it and can Puru Dholakram revive his companys fortunes with it? What do the tapped telephone conversations reveal? And will the Bandargaon Observer survive? Ticklish Matters is another hilarious, entertaining gem from Navneet Jagannathan.
