Excerpt from A Pastoral Letter to His Parishoners Three years have now passed, since, by the Providence of God, we were first brought together in the Pastoral relationship of our beloved Church. This lapse of time is, I hope, sufficient to justify me in thus formally addressing you in a pastoral letter. Many circumstances combine just at this present juncture to render it advisable that I should do so, and I hope that you will peruse, at your leisure, what is here said, in the same spirit as it is written, solely for our common blessing, and the glory of God. First, I wish to represent to you the position in which we stand at present, and then, what further objects we have in view in the advancement of Christ s kingdom in this parish.
