Sugarhill Press, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .THE TRUTH PRESENTED AS FICTION This is the incredible story of precisely why human nature is the ultimate enemy of any investor desiring success. As the new millennium approached, the main character was drawn in by the biggest bull market in US history. The magnetic draw of the stock market was at a historic peak, yet in the twilight zone manner, our unsuspecting hero was drawn into the absolute worst time to be an unseasoned investor as the worst-performing decade for equity performance in US history was about to unfold right after he placed his bet . The story takes you through his incredible journey through the minefield of the financial investment arena and provides a step-by-step horror show of how one man received a priceless education . . . At a remarkable cost. Garrett Jones-- 40+ year Money Manager/Trader. Affiliate with Peter Eliades (Stock Market Cycles Management, INC.) And author of Observations. Free s incandescent novel, Confessions of a Day Trader, drew me into its crazy world of stock market finagling just as surely as it does his characters. Ever wonder what makes the market tick? Free s been there, and he ll show you--in the most revelatory and, indeed, frightening manner possible. Jake Fuchs, Novelist: Death of a Dad: The Nursery School Murders; Death of a Prof: The Nursery School Murders; Conrad in Beverly Hills.
