DOCTOR WHO: MEN OF WAR: 1ST DOCTOR AUDIO ORIGINAL

BBC Worldwide Ltd, United Kingdom, 2018. CD-Audio. Condition: New. Unabridged edition. Language: English . Brand New. Peter Purves reads this original adventure featuring the First Doctor, Steven and Sara, set in the First World War. The Battle of the Somme is the pivotal moment of this conflict. History hinges on it! It s the start of August 1916, and war is raging on the battlefields of France. In the front line trenches, British soldiers are vanishing without trace. Captain Mark Steadman witnesses one of his comrades being pulled down beneath the mud, and realises that something is terribly wrong. When three civilians and a large blue box arrive on the scene, Steadman finds himself helping in their enquiries. The Doctor declares that something has gone wrong with the timeline of the War; the Battle of the Somme should have already begun, yet there is no sign of it. He demands an audience with Field Marshall Haig! A crater in no-man s land reveals the grisly horror of the missing men s fate, and brings the Doctor and his friends into terrible danger. There are forces at work here which even he can t fully comprehend. Peter Purves, who played Steven in the BBC TV series, reads this powerful new story by Justin Richards.
