

The Rhone, the Darro and the Guadalquivir; A Summer Ramble in 1842

By Isabella Frances Romer

Rarebooksclub.com, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 246 x 189 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1843 Excerpt: .three courses, nothing can be more uninteresting and monotonous than the sejour of Cadiz, notwithstanding its fair and cheerful aspect. The public walks are admirable, and are three in number, --the Alameda, the Plaza de la Constitucion (formerly the Plaza de San Antonio), and the Plaza de Mina. The former of these is the most recherche, and by far the most agreeable, as its situation near the sea-shore commanding a full view of that ever-moving picture, the bay, with its shipping, and the town of Puerto de Santa Maria on the opposite side, renders it gay and animated in the extreme; and the breezes wafted from the ocean temper the climate so delightfully, that, even in the most intensely hot weather, the refreshment of cool air is to be found there. The Alameda is divided into an upper and lower walk, having stone benches and narrow...

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

[9.59 MB]

Reviews

This ebook is great. I really could comprehend every thing using this composed e book. Its been designed in an exceedingly simple way and it is only following i finished reading this publication where basically modified me, modify the way in my opinion.

-- Herminia Blanda

I actually started reading this article ebook. I have got read and so i am certain that i will going to study once more yet again in the future. I am just very happy to inform you that this is the finest publication we have read in my personal lifestyle and may be he finest ebook for ever.

-- Mrs. Clotilde Hansen II