TIP CAT (1884), BY EVELYN WHITAKER (CHILDREN S BOOK): EVELYN WHITAKER (1844-1929) WAS AN ENGLISH CHILDREN S WRITER. (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Evelyn Whitaker (1844-1929) was an English children s writer.Whitaker was born in Herne Bay, Kent, the seventh child of Edward Whitaker (b. 1802, a solicitor originally from Bratton, Wiltshire and previously and later of London and Middlesex) and his wife Emily Ann Woolbert (d. before 1851). She attended the Ladies College in Bedford Square, which later developed into Bedford College, part of the University of London.She died in Hammersmith, London at the age of 84, having remained a spinster all her life, and often lived with one or more of her sisters. All Whitaker s works were published anonymously and her identity was not revealed until 1903. Such little novels with religious or moral themes were given as Sunday School prizes, often as attendance awards. Such books were generally inexpensively made with inferior paper, ink, and illustrations but with attractive bindings.Evelyn Whitaker s novels demonstrate intimate knowledge of life both in a vicarage and in a doctor s household and these homes are frequently the settings of her novels. Her religious view was traditional Anglican and that...
