Random House USA Inc, United States, 2016. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. [A] delightful look at the importance of compromise among friends. -- Kirkus Ideal for all families who have ever heard (or said!) the words Why can t you both JUST GET ALONG?!, here is the story of two young children with VERY different ideas of what they want to play. What starts with an innocent question ( What do you want to play? ) soon veers hilariously toward chaos, as two children engage in the age-old struggle of princesses, ponies, and ballet vs. dinosaurs, dragons, and race cars. Which child will win? Or will both find a way to play nicely together? In a humorous mock-epic battle staged with crayon illustrations of each child s increasingly steadfast and elaborate ideas of what they want to play, Richard Torrey taps into the charged and volatile emotions of childhood, which every parent and child will recognize with a smile. It s a lighthearted and funny way to reflect on the ideas of sharing, cooperation, patience, and generosity. A clever story of dueling imaginations. -- School Library Journal A playful and accessible introduction to cooperation. -- Booklist Friendship, it seems, like make-believe, takes an act of imagination. -- The New York Times.
