Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Gift of Love: A Handbook for Writing Legacy Letters and Ethical Wills offers many amazing reasons we should restore the lost art of letter writing. According to Dr. Cofield, the benefits are transformative. They can heal relationships, individuals, families, and entire communities. She presents legacy letter writing as a way of passing on a legacy of values, wisdom, love and more. Dr. Cofield takes the concept of legacy to a whole new level. You learn how legacy operates at the DNA level and how it is as much about what you have accomplished or willed to leave behind, as it is about how you make people feel, laugh, and cry. The handbook even offers a solution for non-writers to be able to compose the most touching, inspirational, and encouraging letters ever. To prepare you, Dr. Cofield takes you on a journey that will have you get to know yourself at a spiritually deep level. With step-by-step instructions, you will get to know what life has meant to you, meaningful lessons you have learned, values you hold close, and what you are grateful for in your life. Then you will learn how to transfer this knowledge in order to touch, move and inspire those you love. This handbook even provides steps for starting a family legacy letter tradition to share the love for many generations to come. This handbook is a great gift to give for any reason or any season.
