

Across the Caribbean

By -

Potbake Productions. Paperback. Condition: New. 216 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.5in. Potbakes 2009-10 Caribbean Short Story Competition resulted in sixteen finalists. The winning story, The Only Man, was written by Raymond Yusuf of Guyana. These finalists stirred the judges in some way. Today you have the chance to read them yourself and become a judge, for this book, perhaps the first of its kind, is an eclectic snapshot of Caribbean literature. The Only Man: A story of a man dying with cancer who's travelled to Guyana to seek out a reputable oncologist. (Winner) Accepted: An enormously fat girl living with her drunkard, widowed father tries to find her place. Big rock soup: When John-John's grandmother dies she leaves him with a Portuguese stone that adds magic to any cooking pot. Crazy Mary: The story of a family who cares for a wealthy woman who has gone mad. Dis anime ting again: A discussion between two college girls with varying tastes in cartoons, Japanese and American. God Save The Queen: Vernon and his pregnant wife are on a date during Carnival. Vernon isn't too happy about it but she's the boss. Lovingly mischievous: The God of Love and Mischief bestow powers...
