Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. I still love you, but more like the way I love my sister. Those were the words that crushed all of Grace's hopes and dreams in one foul swoop. Her life was put on hold and after nine months of waiting around, she found out the truth. Kevin was a liar and nothing he had said to her was ever the truth. True love couldn't be real, because she had never known how it felt to be loved. Waiting for her life to change she decided to take a leap into the big unknown, take a new job in London and make that trip to LA without Kevin or his extra baggage. She was not looking for love, but it found her, she was not looking for him, but she found him and bumping into business tycoon, Alec Richards breakfast and knocking it across the restaurant floor was one of the best things to happen to her, even if at the time she didn't know it. Maybe I am your kryptonite. He smiled slightly, his warm brown eyes seem to dance in the sun. Or I am yours, I replied. Whether she wants to or not, the forces seem to be working in her favour and the holiday she started out alone, soon turns into an adventure of the heart. Discovering things about herself she never knew existed. Alec Richards has woken her beaten and battered heart and brought it back to life. Everything tells her it is too soon, that she could get hurt again, but her heart has a mind of its own. After all, if a heart that has been battered and broken is so...
