Winslow C. Rouse, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Void Generation: How a Generation of Void Restraining Orders Voided the Lives of a Generation is a highly readable account of a series of negligent publishing mistakes by the Judicial Council of California between January 1, 1999 and January 1, 2007 which resulted in the publication of thirteen (13) restraining order forms that violated constitutional due process guarantees and the statutory requirements of the newly enacted 1999 California Senate Bill 218. With no valid forms available for their use, the California courts were compelled to issue all of their restraining orders on void and unenforceable forms for from one to seven years after this whole generation of mandatory Judicial Council restraining order forms was voided by the enactment of Senate Bill 218 on January 1, 2000. Documentary evidence included in this book demonstrates that these void forms may have caused the false arrest and mass incarceration of thousands of presumably innocent African American respondents for allegedly violating California Penal Code Section 12021(g)(2) by failing to surrender their firearms -- without a statutorily required warning notice or their constitutionally guaranteed due process right to appear and be heard at a noticed court hearing. For those tempted to dismiss this book as mere speculation, the facts are irrefutably documented with key pages photocopied from the Judicial Council s own forms, reports, and legally binding decisions. Comparison of the void forms with their later valid revisions proves that all of California s mandatory restraining order forms were void in the year 2000, and that many of the Judicial Council s restraining order forms were void for periods ranging from two to more than eight years after these important...
