

Robbery in Progress

By Richard Schwein

Createspace. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 411 pages. On a hot August day in Philadelphia a heavily armed gang of young men led by an older man rob a bank across the street from the home of the Philadelphia Mafia boss. A mob Capo in the bank draws a weapon and is cut down in a burst of automatic weapons fire. Philadelphia detective Amy King in the bank to cash a check takes a round in the thigh. The case is assigned to FBI agent Ben Douglas who is teamed with Homicide detective Vanessa Robinson the first African-American female assigned to the prestigious homicide squad. The question becomes who finds the gang first, law enforcement to arrest them, or the mob to eliminate them Days after the first robbery the gang robs a temporary trailer bank, killing the bank guard a retired Philadelphia police officer. The pressure builds for a quick resolution of the case. They catch a break when a recent high school graduate identifies one of the robbers from bank camera photos shown on television as a schoolmate she dated. Another robbery takes place and the guard, another retired police officer, is...
