These carts are drawn by two horses, and the loads are about half the size which the fanners draw to greater distances with three or four horses.--J. M. f It is also situate on the south-west border of the town, consequently the cold of the north-east wind, so hurtful to vegetation in exposed situations, is considerably moderated, or rarefied, before it passes over these grounds; they are also naturally low and sheltered.--J. M. quarters, quarters, with radishes, spinach, onions, and all the other seed crops. As soon afterwards as the season will permit, which is generally in February, the same ground is planted with cauliflowers, from the frames, as thick as if no other crop then had possession of the ground. The radishes, c. are soon sent to market; and when the cauliflowers are so far advanced as to be earthed up, sugarloaf cabbages are planted from the aforesaid seed crops. When these are marketed, the stalks are taken up, the ground cleared, and planted with endive and celery from the said seed crop; and daily as these crops are sent to market, the same ground is cropped with celery for winter use. The foregoing rotation, or order, in which the land is cropped, may be considered as the general practice of the gardeners of this district, although there are individuals who differ from it in several respects; as the state of the markets, the price of the articles, or their own inclination and opinion direct...
