

MAKING LOVE IN TONGUES: A Poetry Selection (Paperback)

By Ilan Sheinfeld

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This is a chronologically ordered selection, on various themes, all selected from Sheinfeld's Early poetry books, and translated by different translators. Writer and Gay activist Ilan Sheinfeld was born in Tel Aviv (1960). He is one of the first Gay Israeli artists to spend an entire career out of the closet. For his activities in the field of Gay culture, in 2005 Sheinfeld was recognized by the community with its Outstanding Citizen's award. Sheinfeld has published twelve collections of poetry, five novels, three plays, two books for young poets and five children's books. Three of his plays have been staged and he was awarded the Prime Minister's Prize for Literature twice, in 1990 and in 2015. He received his M.A degree in Hebrew Literature from Tel Aviv University, where he founded and edited the literary magazine Shufra (1984-6). He served as co-editor of the literary section of the leftwing Al Hamishmar newspaper (1981-1990) and as the spokesman for the Cameri Theater of Tel Aviv (1990-1992). Since 1992 he has managed his own public relations company. He teaches...
