My whole, where genial souls unite, Is welcome as the morning light. 177. I met a physician one day, and he said, If to him were a verb and a substantive, brought, The name of an author thereby would be made, Whose writings range wide in the region of thought. 178. Change the last letter of my first, And, ladies, you will quickly see, A creature mad with Fashion s thirst, More despicable e en than she. Ape not his folly, but proceed My nobler, worthier next, to view; My total is a useless weed, Fit emblem, O my first! of you. 179. My first in festive scenes goes round, With glee, from lip to lip; But is more offensive found, When gentle...
