Story of Toil for Christ Of the four great pioneers of the gospel and Christian civilization in Japan, Verbeck, Brown, Hepburn and Williams, this volume completes the biography of that one who was second on the ground and possibly the first in general usefulness. Americas greatest gift to Japan was in these men. I knew them all, during four years in the Mikados empire, as neighbors, friends and fellow workers, in perils and in joys. Though not technically a missionary - my calling being that of an educational pioneer - I loved and rejoiced in their work, as if one of them. From 1870 until Dr. Hepburns decease in 1911, we were always friends, and also occasional correspondents. But without that noble work of God, the help meet for him, there would have been no such Dr. Hepburn, as all Japan and we his friends knew, and so I have in this volume much to say about Mrs. Hepburn. She wrote me, on March 21, 1895, concerning her husband, as follows:...
