His soul is the same but the brain and body belong to a human who lives in Australia and once merged, he forgets his purpose whilst on the planet. A destiny becomes apparent but he was not meant to interfere with an unborn child. From another dimension, he waits for an outcome while his daughter lives a trapped life, wondering why she has a mother that keeps secrets. His daughter is aware that horses are important but she doesn't know why and when she discovers the truth, she is exposed to a life that is filled with conspiracies, magic and myths. Movies provided hints that opened her mind to the power of the moon but her story will open your eyes to what you are not meant to see. Tales come from truth and from lunacy comes a story from Rhianon Luna.
