He had watched the gospel of Jesus Christ spread like wildfire. Millions had experienced the joyful salvation of the Lord. As John reflected on his memories, the Holy Spirit brought to his remembrance all that Jesus said and did on that Final Night before the crucifixion. So John began writing these vital words in his own gospel, in order that the church could be strengthened for the coming years. Those words would be life and health to the next generations of Christians. That's what Final Night is all about! From the first shocking event of washing their feet, to the concluding prayer proffered to the Father about their unity, the disciples were challenged to have the best relationships of any human group or organization. Find the pure and simple reality of real unity for the church in Final Night. Have you ever been betrayed by someone...
