AuthorHouse. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 84 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.2in. It was back in the late 1970s that I first began to write poems. In all the poems that God gave me, there were some that related to teens and young people. I separated those into a book called Heavenly Rap. The rest of my poems are enclosed in this book, with a diversity of subjects. . . poems for all Seasons. I have several favorites, and one of them is called Noah. This poem is about my baby parakeet. He died Christmas of 2003. I had him for six cute years. It will seem unbelievable, but everything I wrote about him is true. In my poem, The Auctioneer, a lost soul is being auctioned to the highest bidder. Who will the highest bidder be? Another favorite is Baby Tree. It deals with attitudes. And Baby Tree had a good attitude; one I need to follow. . . The poem Easter, Matt. 19, and 27: 19-25 (My Version) is perhaps my very favorite. Again, the Lord has given me special words and phrases, but then, you'll see. I hope these poems will make you smile, reminisce, and most of all, touch your heart as the Lord has touched mine in writing these poems. The Lord bless you all.
