Terrell, of Austin, Texas, Before the Athenaeum and Rusk Societies of the University of Texas: Delivered June 13, 1884 Gentlemen of the Literary Societies, Ladies and Citizens: At this the first public exhibition made by the students of the University of Texas, I can think of no better theme than the University itself, as a factor in the prosperity of the State, and in promoting the happiness of the people. Texas, with her three hundred and eleven thousand school children, who are receiving instruction in free schools through more than seven thousand teachers, free of charge to parents, or with taxation so low as scarcely to be felt, exhibits a spectacle of local governmental beneficence never before witnessed in so young a State. Other governments can boast of more splendid and expensive school systems, but they are sustained by taxes on the accumulated wealth of generations. Ours is not the outgrowth of time and of inherited wealth, but was provided for by the wise foresight of men who, in the...
