Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Object of the Administration in Prosecuting the War Before entering upon a discussion of this very important subject, it may not be amiss for me, being a Southern man, to offer an apology for meddling in the politics of the day. Were the interests of the Northern people alone evolved in the issue of the coming campaign, I should certainly not feel excusable in doing this, but inasmuch as the principles involved extend to the people of the most remote Southern States, and are also of vital importance to them, I not only consider it my privilege, but actually my duty, to express my sentiments freely on this most important occasion. In the first place I will remark that I have not come here with two sets of sentiments; one for the North, the other for the South. I therefore expect to advance the same sentiments here that I did there, even the same for which I was arrested and imprisoned, they being my honest convictions. I will also state that I am not allied nor pledged to the principles of any party, but advocate exclusively such measures as I honestly and conscientiously believe to be best for the people of all sections of the country. But if, in doing this I should advance any sentiments not in accordance with those of my Republican or Democratic brethren, they will please pardon me for so doing when I inform them that it is a conscientious belief that I am in the discharge of my duty, that prompts me so to speak. Having been very kindly treated by my Republican and Democratic brethren since I came North,...
