IN PERSON: 30 POETS (PAPERBACK)

BLOODAXE BOOKS LTD, United Kingdom, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. Pamela Robertson-Pearce (illustrator). Language: English . Brand New Book. Thirty poets from around the world read to you in person. This is a new concept in publishing: your own personal poetry festival brought into your home. Each poet reads to you for about ten minutes - up to half a dozen poems chosen from across the range of their work. In Person is a collaboration between Bloodaxe Books and award-winning film-maker Pamela Robertson-Pearce. Her style of filming combines directness and simplicity, sensitivity and warmth - the perfect combination for these intimate readings. It is as if the poet were sitting in the room with you, reading just to you, and sometimes saying a few things about the poems. Apart from one recording taken from a live public performance, all the films present informal, one-to-one readings. They enhance your appreciation of the poetry. You hear how the poems sound; you see how the poets read and present their work. T.S. Eliot once described poetry as one person talking to another , while W.H. Auden believed it was essential to hear poetry read aloud, for no poem, which when mastered, is not better heard than read is good poetry . In Person presents the oral art of poetry in that spirit. There are four hours of readings on two DVDs pouched inside the back cover, and all the poems are printed in this book. In Person celebrates 30 years of poetry from a pioneering press. Founded in 1978, Bloodaxe has published nearly a thousand titles by three hundred writers. Until now you wouldn't be able to see or hear readings by many of Bloodaxe's international range of poets. In Person makes that possible for the first time, presenting readings by 30..
