HardPress Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 258 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. Excerpt: . . . you know that we students were committing treason against the great laws of life which God has laid down for us No. Well, we are. Man was made for active life, and in the open air. But you, it seems, are not observing the theory about which you are so positive No, and dont intend to. To observe that, I must relinquish all thought of mounting the professional and political ladder, even half way to the mark I must and will reach. I have naturally a strong constitution, and I calculate it will last, with the rapid mounting I intend, till I reach the top round, and that is all that I care for. But I shall know, all the while, that I am going up like a rocket, whose height and brilliancy are only attained by the certain and rapid wasting of the substance that composes it. But the case is different with you, Carvil. You have a constitution yet to make, or your rocket will go out, before you can get high enough, in these days...
