

Du jeu de balle à l'identité nationale"

By Grognet, Fabrice

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: Éditions universitaires européennes | Histoires croisées entre football et immigration | Le football est devenu aujourd'hui plus qu'un sport. Comme il a montré l'engouement médiatique autour de la victoire de l'équipe de France "black-blanc-beur" du Mondial 1998, le football peut fédérer les foules bien au-delà du cercle de ses pratiquants habituels et raviver l'idée d'un " creuset français ", ou encore celle du football comme " ascenseur social ". Toutefois, les joueurs de l'équipe de France sont entrés dans la tourmente médiatique à l'issue du "fiasco" de leur participation à la Coupe du monde 2010. Les " bleus " à l'image ternie suscitent alors des commentaires réprobateurs dans lesquels pointe la stigmatisation des jeunes de banlieue issus de l'immigration. Mais, comment un sport arrivé en France à la fin du XIXe siècle avec la venue d'expatriés anglais est devenu, plus d'un siècle plus tard, le moyen d'interroger ce que doit être l'identité nationale" ? Cet ouvrage propose ainsi de revenir sur quelques traits majeurs et marquants des histoires croisées qui unissent football et immigration depuis plus d'un siècle en France. | Format: Paperback | Language/Sprache: fre | 104 pp.
