By People s Club of Philadelphia

Forgotten Books, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Address of the People s Club of Philadelphia in Favor of Gen.: Simon Cameron for the Next Presidency of the United States In Pennsylvania, the bond which unites the People s Party on a common platform of principles, and in a common cause of opposition to those in power in the Federal Government, is firm and strong, and will prove itself enduring, if not weakened or destroyed by misguided and uninformed councils elsewhere. Our strength here is in union. United action has secured us two successive victories in the State, and will as certainly obtain for us in the future what it has accomplished in the past. But, should any portion of the People s Party, influenced by the action of their distinctive organization in other States, be disposed to act under opposite impressions, which, happily, is not likely to be the case with many, if any, those having a knowledge of the real condition of things in the State, will not deem us rash in saying, that defeat would inevitably follow such act. To be successful at the next Presidential...
