After a short, whirlwind romance with a dreamy businessman, she thinks she's found the perfect marriage. Life is good until she comes home and finds a pistol on Brandon's hip and a dead man lying on her floor. Kidnapped by her own husband, Kaitlyn is questioned for information about her father, a man she believes has been dead since she was seven. Brandon will do anything to get his hands on her father's old journal, which is said to contain a map, and Kaitlyn has no clue what it is or where to find it. James has been in love with Kaitlyn since they were children, and when he dreams of her danger, he rushes across the country to find her. His only clue is the Black Coyote Project, a mysterious term surrounding Kaitlyn's father and his past associates. But in fighting to save her, they discover a world-wide hunt for the powerful secrets hidden in the Sierra Nevadas of California, and the trouble has only just begun. In a race against the clock, Kaitlyn learns more about her father than she ever thought possible, James discovers his grandfather's important role in protecting the legendary treasure, and her father's team gathered to finish the hunt must put together the clues before all the wrong people beat them to it.
