TOO BAD, SHE S A GIRL (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A 13-year old girl comes of age in 1955 Kentucky. She begins to discover who she is sexually and intellectually in a pre-feminist, and very sexist culture. Shawnee Bluff, Kentucky is beautiful, quaint, idyllic, picturesque and often boring town, but offers a lively canvas for her to paint her masterpiece. In other words, to shape and enjoy her personality: her in-your-face verbal skills, profound loyalty to simple human justice, her insistence that she deserves the chance to compete in every way in any contest with anyone and to enter into her secret compact with the silence that always beckons her. Because of her bond with the new girl in town, a 15-year old pregnant girl, she steps into gun sights of small town fundamentalist hypocrisy, yet holds her own. Under the tutelage of an alcoholic baseball coach she schemes to pass as a boy and play against a rival team in the next town. This teenage e-book is for all ages. Breezy, humorous teen drama that includes sex abuse, date rape, and female empowerment. It is not explicit but is based in reality. A Christian teen fiction that does not preach but shows the true faith in dramatic and brave actions in the life of a head strong young woman who has no filter between her mind and her mouth. Patricia Williams can hold her own. She plays by her own rules. [Following is the official review of Too Bad She s a Girl by J W Templeman.] 4 out of 4 stars It s 1955 in Shawnee Bluff, Kentucky. Eisenhower is in the White House, World War II is a recent memory, and FDA approval of birth control...
