Mountain Brook Ink, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Grace Ryan works to untangle clues left by her late grandparents-clues involving a WWII conspiracy that could tear her family apart. History professor Grace Ryan returns to her hometown expecting to help her grandmother turn her journals and memories of WWII into memoirs. She arrives to find her grandmother being loaded into an ambulance. When she begs Grace to find the truth about a decades-old crime, whispers the word treason, then slips away forever, Grace is left to separate fact from fiction. Then, an unwelcome inheritance strikes at her already fragile family bond. Though God's voice seems silent, He sends someone to stand in the gap for her. Erik Petersson, unjustly accused of infidelity, suffered through an unwanted divorce and the loss of his children's love to his former wife's bitterness. A physicist on sabbatical, he agrees to help Grace dig through her late grandfather's scientific papers. As he struggles to win back his children's love, he and Grace are catapulted into a quagmire of truth and lies that could tear her family apart.
