

Good Stock: Life on a Low Simmer

By Sanford DAmato

Agate Publishing. Hardcover. Condition: New. 400 pages. Good Stock is the story of Sanford Sandy DAmatos journey from young Italian kid who loved to cook to unknown culinary student with a passion for classical French cuisine to one of the most respected chefs and restaurateurs in the country. Featuring more than 140 recipes and full-color photography throughout, Good Stock weaves together memoir and cookbook in an beautiful and engaging package. Sanford, the restaurant DAmato opened in 1989 and sold to his longtime chef de cuisine in December 2012, has been one of the highest-rated restaurants in America over the past 20 years, earning accolades from Bon Apptit, Gourmet, Food and Wine, Esquire, Wine Spectator, Zagat Guide, and the James Beard Foundation. DAmato has cooked for the Dalai Lama and the 2002 Salt Lake City Olympics, and was one of 12 chefs chosen by Julia Child herself to cook for her 80th birthday celebration. The story of Sanford and Sandy DAmato is in part the story of Americas embrace of fine dining and its acceptance of chefs as master craftsmen. Over the past quarter century, America has seen a rise in the prominence of celebrity chefs, to the extent that its...
