I have never doubted the ability of Commodore Chauncey to beat off the Enemy should they attempt to land a force near Sackett s Harbor during his continuance in that part of the Lake. He has never expressed to me a doubt on the subject and it was only in case of his absence that apprehensions were to be entertained for the safety of the place; judge then of my surprize to see by your letter that the enemy would presume to Cross and cover their troops with their old fleet.
