Experience Mayhew s Indian Converts: A Cultural Edition (Paperback)

By -

University of Massachusetts Press, United States, 2008. Paperback. Condition: New. A Cultural. Language: English . Brand New Book. This is a new scholarly edition of an important primary text in Native American studies. First published in 1727, under the title Indian Converts, or Some account of the lives and dying speeches of a considerable number of the Christianized Indians of Martha s Vineyard, in New-England, Experience Mayhew s history of the Wampanoag Indians on Martha s Vineyard provides a rare look at the lives and culture of four generations of Native Americans in colonial America. Dividing his treatment into four sections - Indian Ministers, Good Men, Religious Women, and Pious Children - Mayhew details the books that different age groups were reading, provides insights into early New England pedagogy and childrearing practices, and describes each individual in terms of genealogy, religious practice, way of life, and place of residence. In addition to drawing on his own firsthand knowledge of the community and transcriptions of oral testimony he and others collected, Mayhew inserts translations of Wampanoag texts that have since been lost. Although the book has been out of print since the early nineteenth century, scholars have long recognized its importance for...
