By Kevin Cousins

Paperback. Condition: New. 214 pages. In his debut book, ex-hi-bi-tion, Kevin W. Cousins enthralls us with five memorable tales: In Siouxwood, the Bloch family find themselves in a deadly plot to bring an extinct tribe back from the dead. In The Walk, Wesley decides to punish his unruly teenage daughter. Ultimately, the whole household learns something about the young girls strength. In Special Needs, Agent Cody Reason must find a serial killer. One of his people of interest is a severely autistic man who leads him into a world of organized crime. In Citadel1970, Hollyn Tombstone finds herself on a frozen trek back to Muscatine, Iowa. Its New Years day and she has only two things on her mind; her children and taking down anyone that gets in her way. In Larry (now a major character in the book Larry and the Creeping Horde), a husband and wife move into a rundown house. A number of issues were expected but no one could have imagined a problem like Larry. If youre looking for a book to curl up with on a dark rainy night, this is your book. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR,...
