The question as to what are net earnings is the same in a franchise tax case as in a rate case, because the same credits and debits are made. Therefore, the measure of depreciation allowances out of earnings applied in franchise tax cases is equally applicable in principle in rate cases with reference to the ascertainment of earnings attributable to the return. DEPRECIATION AS A FACTOR IN ACCOUNTING The United States Supreme Court has well stated: Since the regulation of the railroad carrier by the public authority, and especially the fixing of rates to be charged, depend primarily upon two fundamental considerations: (a) the value of the property that is employed in the public service, and (b) the current cost of carrying on that service, it is clear that the maintenance of a proper line of distinction between...
