The Prince and Timberance

By R L Omer

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 102 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.3in. A handsome prince, a powerful magic ring, and a shrewd sorceress form a triangle of suspense. Travel back in time to a magnificent African kingdom of long, long ago where a loyal servant might hold the only key to stop an extremely clever, not-very-nice sorceress whose greed could lead to the destruction of this lush and beautiful kingdom. Readers will be captivated as they follow the prince's journey to a faraway land where his life will be changed forever. Timberance, born in America in the late 1800s, is a sensitive and beautiful African-American maiden. Ridiculed and teased because of someone's jealousy toward her, Timberance leads a painfully lonely life. Her only escape is found through books and exploring an old woman's mansion that is full of antique curios, hidden doors, and secret passageways. On a crisp autumn day, Timberance finds that she has entered the cave many believe is haunted. Inside, she will discover something more chilling than a ghost or the cold autumn wind. Life will change forever for the prince and Timberance as they discover the power...
