The University of Chicago Press, United States, 1999. Paperback. Condition: New. New edition. Language: English . Brand New Book. In this text, S. Craig Watkins examines two of the important developments in the recent history of black cinema - the ascendancy of Spike Lee and the proliferation of ghettocentric films . The work explores a distinct contradiction in American society - at the same time that black youth have become the targets of a fierce racial backlash, their popular expressive cultures have become highly visible and commercially viable.
