Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Luke spotted his mother lying on the ground in front of their home, blood dripping from her mouth and her flawless brown eyes open and vacant. Letting go of Nikkis hand he ran dashing in her direction. Nikki followed with such quickness she almost beat him there. The light that had been protecting them vanished, when it did the chaos began again. Landing on his knees upon reaching her with tears streaming down his face he gently closed Kimbers eyes. Nicole had come up behind him a placed her hand on his shoulder as he gathered up his mothers limp body and carried her into the tent. In the depths of the hut their eyes fell to the others. On the floor her parents Raven and Neveah were locked in an embrace. The odd thing was there was no trauma on the outside of their bodies but their eyes were empty of life. Lukes father Leo was at the back of the hut with a spear protruding from his chest. Gently placing his mothers lifeless body carefully on the ground he rushed to his father, Nicole wearily fell to the floor where her parents lay. As he reached his fathers body and began to pull the spear from his chest he saw a movement within the shadow. Glancing down at Nicole while she was weeping over her parents then back the motion, he grabbed the spear and flung it at the man who had stepped out into sight and was reaching for her. The spear went through him and into the canvas that made up the wigwam. Nicole became aware of the man as the...
