When Josh Nordlands family moves back to the Arizona-Mexico border, he reckons that his main interests girls, football, jazz and his motorbike wont change. He certainly isnt interested in exploring his Apache heritage, or the land of his forefathers. That all changes when Josh meets Billy Cotton, a classmate with only one desire: to become an Apache warrior. After defending Billy against a schoolyard beating, Josh finds himself on the outskirts of his new high school. And so he strikes up an unlikely friendship with this strange, scrawny Apache warrior. Gradually, Josh discovers that he is also drawn to Billys dream of treading the Warriors Way. But the path is not without peril, and the two find that their dream may be heavily at odds with the realities of modern America. This item ships from multiple locations.
