Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Quin-Decennial Record of the Class of 93 of Princeton University Not what we sing or what we say Can make us dearer to each other; We love the singer and his lay, But love as well the silent brother. Owing to the fact that the last six months have been for most of us hard ones financially, the Committee in charge of the Quin-Decennial Reunion has not felt justified in making a lavish expenditure on the Record, and have, therefore, limited it to a directory of living members with a few vital statistics and a short biographical sketch with photograph of each deceased member. Modest as the record is, it has the unique distinction of being the first ever issued by a Class graduated from Princeton, or any other university, so far as we can ascertain, in which every member and ex-member is accounted for, even though an ex-member was not with us for a longer period than a few days. The Committee is indebted to Mr. Duffield, the Treasurer of the University, for assistance in tracing the addresses of some of the ex-members, to the relatives of the deceased who have kindly supplied biographical notes, and to Tark for the introduction.
