Excerpt from Life of Venerable Fr; Antony Margil: Taken From the Process for His Beautification and Canonization Millions of the Indians were led to embrace the religion of Jesus Christ by the zeal of the missionaries, many of whom, especially in North America, gave their lives for their faith. These were Franciscans, Dominicans, Jesuits and other priests. Many others became renowned for their great sanctity, as for instance, St. Turibius, Bishop of Lima, St. Francis Solano, o.f. M., apostle of Tucuman and Peru, St. Peter of Central America and Nigros, St. Philip of Jesus, o.f. M., martyr of Japan, and many others Venerable Antony Margil is not the least among these zealous apostles. Indeed, without exaggeration, this great servant of God may be compared in fervor to St. Francis Xavier, the apostle of the Indies, in extraordinary gifts and graces to St. Antony of Padua, in indefatigable labor to St. Francis Solano, in desire to die for the faith of Jesus Christ to St. Philip of Jesus, and in zeal to St. Turibius, Bishop...
