Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. It is my desire to share the dissappointments and triumphs associated with living an aviation lifestyle. My hope is that many more individuals who are considering becoming a pilot, an aircraft mechanic or maybe even an aircraft owner will find this information valuable. This book covers nearly every aspect of becoming involved in aviation no matter which of these fields you might be interested in persuing. You can learn what is required by the Federal Aviation administration in order to become an aircraft mechanic, an aircraft inspector or even a private pilot. You can learn what you need to do in order to get started with pilot training. You can learn what to look for if you are considering purchasing an aircraft to do your training in. If you already own an aircraft you can learn about avionics upgrades and what maintenance you are allowed to do on your own aircraft. It has been brought to my attention that many people may be interested in being involved in aviation but really have no idea which area suits them best or where to begin and I believe this will help. I have been involved in the aviation industry for nearly forty years as the title indicates and have worked on Military, Commercial, Corporate and General Aviation aircraft my entire adult life. I have many people asking me aviation related questions from daylight to dark everyday and I thought it would a be good idea to just make a lot of this information available in one place. This book covers many serious aviation related topics but also shares a significant amount of firsthand experiences in different types of aviation careers. Personally...
