Being born into plenty money never stopped Chazae from doing what he was born to do. With a father like Dom, Chazae had no choice but to tag along and get money. Dom is his provider, his teacher and most of all, his best friend. Being true to the streets is all Chazae really wants to do, and he is damn good at it. After his mother, Charae, walked out on their family when he was just a young boy, his heart turned completely cold. He vowed to never trust another woman, after watching his father suffer from the pain she caused him. His word is kept, until his brother Semaj introduces him to a beautiful young lady named Dola. Dola is about her money and is very loyal when it comes to the people she loves, but her loyalty will definitely be tested throughout this wild ride. Semaj is Chazae s little brother, and even though he wants to be exactly like his big brother and make his own money, Chazae and Dom force him to study his books and focus on school while they take care of him. Semaj is very book smart but a little naive when it comes to being in the streets. Chazae s best friend, Tauris, feels that Chazae and Dom are only babying Semaj and he can get the job done. After going against his father and brother s wishes, Semaj is caught up in a world of trouble, which will cause lives to change, hearts to shatter, and their circle to never be the same. In Tilt My Crown To The Streets, stay out the mix and get his money is...
